

Coatings Laborer

Job Summary: Responsible for properly preparing, cleaning and racking parts to be powder coated while making sure paperwork is complete and accurate. Also responsible for de-racking and inspecting parts after painting and prepare and complete paperwork to be sent to QC and assembly.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Clean and sand parts
- Prepare parts for paint using cleaners or solutions
- Add masking components as needed to parts
- Rack parts using proper spacing
- De-rack parts keeping work orders connected to parts
- Complete all paperwork accurately
- Responsible for keeping shop clean all other tasks as assigned
- Adheres to all company policies, procedures and business ethics codes
- Maintain regular and prompt attendance
- Perform other duties as assigned

Required Skills:

- Integrity and ability to work independently
- Must be able to pass a fit test for respirator

Preferred Skills:

- Proven working experience as laborer preferred but not necessary
- Knowledge of cleaning chemicals and supplies
- Familiarity with Material Safety Data Sheets

Educational/Certification Requirements:

- High School Education or equivalent